

Program Solicitation - International Literary Exchange: Contemporary Russian Poetry Anthology

The purpose of this Program Solicitation is to enter into a Cooperative Agreement to increase the availability of poetry in translation in the U.S. by providing support for the publication of an anthology of contemporary Russian poetry translated into English and accompanied by outreach activities in the United States to promote the work. The successful recipient of the Cooperative Agreement (Cooperator) must have a strong commitment to international literature to help fulfill this goal. Prior experience dealing with the publication of Russian literature in translation is desirable, but not required.

Proposals in response to this solicitation in original and two (2) copies will be received at the above address, or if hand carried, in Room 618, until 4:00 p.m. on October 5, 2006.

The complete program solicitation is available as a PDF document.
